

Marco Cantú, Missionary in Mexico

November 2024

Dear Brethren of the Baptist Churches of the Lord Jesus Christ,

May God abundantly bless you. Greetings from Mexico. I thank you for your generous support, for your prayers, and your interest in the ongoing ministry here.

This past month of November, the cold rainy season has begun, which sometimes makes it difficult to hand out tracts and witness from house to house, because the streets are unpaved. Also, the houses are not protected from this cold weather, so people don't want to come out to receive us. Even so, we try when it isn't raining and there are other areas with better streets that we can access without difficulty.

We have been blessed to improve the place where we preach and the brethren continue to be available and joyful attending the services. We continue announcing the gospel and handing out tracts out in the streets and house to house, preaching in the regular services and home Bible studies.

We are praying for the arrival of our Brother Dante for our upcoming conference. Pray for us that the Lord will provide for the conference. We are going to be receiving the brethren from Pesquería, Nuevo Leon and those of Zuazua and will provide the food and lodging, but especially desire that the Lord opens our understanding and enables us to put into practice all the counsel of God, praying also that He blesses the brethren that will be preaching.

In the service of the Lord,

Marco A. Cantú
