

Marco Cantú, Missionary in Mexico
March 2026

Dear Brethren in the Lord,

May God bless you abundantly. I thank Him for your faithfulness in supporting the work here in Matamoros, Tamaulipas, Mexico.

We in this place are thankful to our Lord because in each moment in every activity He has manifested Himself in such a way that we can feel His blessing upon this group of persons that He has been pleased to bring together.

The activities of preaching and handing out literature continue being a great opportunity to share the gospel of our Lord, and He continues giving us liberty and opportunities to share the message.

After asking prayer for a family that had been faithful in attendance, but afterward stopped coming, now we see the Lord has answered and they have begun to visit us again on various occasions.

The teens that we have are maturing and with their growth we see favorable changes in their conduct for their spiritual growth. One young man is developing more talent than the others in playing the guitar and showing very much interest in learning.

I ask that you pray for each person in our assembly for their growth in the Lord.

In the service of the Lord,

Marco A. Cantú
